Paul was waiting outside for me with a scornful against a giggle high pitched and nasal. Thinking I had not made myself understood I explained again about the 2 min silence. Again he wanted to speak over me as soon as I wanted. I said "I did not mean to argue with him only that this is how we worked – He was I think trying to tell me I should be doing something else – If he wanted to change it – to speak to Alec about it.

Alec I am sure is aware and I suspect that in his mind he is saying He'll have to put up with Betty All the others will have to put up with Paul. Which is again it has taken him 4 years or so to get him back to the temple. 4 years spent in having him in the right frame of mind so that God could control him. Is it going to take another 4 years before the rest of us to cope with him And in the meantime is he going to be allowed to interrupt the Temple work. Paul may have changed his attitude to Alec but he has not changed in his himself. Alec is I think is sexually attracted. And prepared to impose on anyone as a result of this.

I resolve never again to become innocent victim of his intrigue.

From what Alec has said he has been working against Lindas boy friend. My immediate concern on this afternoon was to sort out it.
I felt I had met a soul which I could talk to and my love was poured out to her. I spoke of what I called the true initiation. And we compared notes and I have confirmed again what Sanderson has appeared to be personal insanity to be Effective reality.

down and so did I. Paul moved around and – for a minute started to talk again about how many seconds a something. I switched on the light and started to clear up. said Goodnight to Linda. Betty Hutchinson gave her History book to me which I accepted gratefully. Whilst putting on my shoes I asked in a cupa saying I felt dreadful to – Oddest Betty muttered on her way out I must to get to Bed So I already upset by having to explain away my afternoon as though I had done something shy + deceitful I could not bear to drink cup of disconsolate from Betty, So I said I would not delay her help
