

Church Of occult Science. In each town and city where they try to commence their diabolical operations, we intend to suppress their activities, through the press, and in every other peaceful way we can find. We as do all good Christians, seek to protect the lonely, aged and infirm and young children; who stand in greater danger to their exposures through their own natural curiosity. As a parent I also speak on behalf of other parents in the White Brotherhood.

The President of the Church Of occult Science, Alan Hume, is travelling to Illinois to open more temples. The American White Brotherhood will do their best to suppress it, but under some difficulties because of the legal differences there.

Yours, Sincerely In The Great Work,
Alexander Sanders.
