Derek.

This Crown is not touched + neither is he — for he is of man.

In the Way of Truth + Light, all moves upon these very virtues, and these are born only from love.

In finding the love within your soul + heart, seek the seed that it may blossom forth in full light.

You asked what I'd do in your place + I said to find the seed of joy contained within + let it flower forth.

This I still say. The seed is there, you have but to recognise + realise — it is the seed of Truth.

Define what is love — carve it into its many aspects until you reach the spiritual, unpressing, unselfish, undemanding, unpossessing simplicity + beauty that is of ye Spirit — discard all else.

Blessed Be.
