

The Bell Hotel 19th July '83.

Myrna's Tarot reading.

Asmodeus.

I came to you...if you turn out of your room right, in room six, the number of the Beast. I came and spoke to you. Do you not remember me? I have been with him, guarding him and protecting him. I did say to you I would not harm him in his darkest hours and now I am here with him again ...you do not remember me?

' Asmodeus'

Yes, I am his friend. I would not harm him. He is still very near to the surface of his being. I will take the images of the rams and of all the horned beings across. He has gold and silver upon him. He has the star light and the fire light. I am blessing him. I am giving to him the power of the Inferno but, he must use that power carefully. Goodbye my friend, always I am in your heart and in his heart. I am everywhere. I have brought new life again for him. The power of the Inferno is his, if he uses it very carefully goodbye Derek. Before I go.. you have a mother.. I shall gaze upon her . Eight years..
