Bob Wilson ----America.

Sir, Bob Wilson reporting for duty sir.

'Nice to be with you again'.

My work sir is now in America. I will bring news for you in October of the White House. Sir there are many intrigues. I am sorry sometimes that I could not have met you with the body.. I am on the war records sir.

'Which regiment were you in?'

I have forgotten. (I tell him of the work with Peter the author who is planning to write a book which will include the account of the Falklands war and Bob Wilson who became our magical contact both in the flesh and when he passed over.)

'Are you pleased with that'

Yes. You have been talking of the Falkland Islands. You did tell him that I died. I heard you - I was in America. Sir Beg leave - October 13th.

I Thankyou Bob, see you again soon.'
