Hermann.

My child, I speak to the child of Earth, Helmut that he may understand that if he stands upon his Fatherland in the Womb of the Great Mother, then I can hold him with my own body. He must visit Externsteine alone first. He must understand the carving which is the initiation of a man. It is the birth of a man, his life and his death and his resurrection in the womb of the Great Mother. He must walk up the staircase when you have been buried. You must go into the Temple of the Sun and I shall come to you and I shall bless you and purify you and I shall drive away from your body Fen, the wolf that is in your mind. ...I shall cast out the demons and the serpents and I shall bring to you the dragon of force and of power, It is important that you visit the Externstein alone and you look at the entwining of the man and the woman by the dragon. When you descend the staircase I shall meet you and I shall be seated as the Hierophant in your reading...I shall be upon the seat of authority and you shall wait upon the ledge of request. I shall lead you into the chamber of the power of Odin, bless his Holy and sacred name...and I shall return you into the womb to be reborn, that all evils of your past lives, may be cast from you. I speak to you with the English tongue that others may understand my message. I am Hermann Denker. My salutations The victory will be yours - Zieg Heil.

The Scorpion man..will make modern world writing to the curator of antiquities at Cairo museum and request to visit to stay within the depths and the centres of the Pyramids and of the Temples and the Museums of your heart's desire, the permission will be granted for you. ...Upon the lower level of the second level of the pyramid in keeping with the Golden Capstone pyramid you will paint a black entrance proportionate to the mathematical conceptions of that which you have drawn and painted. We will begin to open the doors of Egypt for you. I will tell you - mathematically the clears ??? for the temples the pyramids for painting. Divide your pyramid mathematically into three sections and upon the base of your second level immediately beneath the golden capstone - keystone you will paint a black entrance. You can find, when the dog star Sirius shines above the Great Pyramid of Orpheus. Life Health Strength, salutations and greetings forever and forever and forever and for millions and millions of years.
