.....I will come tonight make sure you have your materials ready for the square.

Spirit Michael.

Hello Dirty Dirk...hello I was the one who decided you would be called Kahlil so I am here yes. That Erif Der yes She is red fire. My advice is to make the square of love. You will have to make before the mid-night time and to cut it out Dirk. Turn it into an angelYou will have to write the name Angel upon it's obverse side yes in Theban then give it to him. Love conquers all as a signet around an arm Love is stronger than death. Do you remember how he did it before? You remember. ...You must make it before this midnight time. It is a Friday. It is the day of Queen Hagiel. It is the day of power. Use it for the first time and give it to him yes. Let the apprentice help you please. Let him make the squares. It will have to be quickly. I do go from you now, be not concerned. Be joyous and content.
He is safe with us. He is very tired and yet it is decreed in his fate that to fulfil fulfil his destiny he must do much more work so the next square will come before the daylight time. Sutura will keep his promise to come back. Kahlil, it is not true what that Alex did say that we do not have a concept of time. There is no time there's no space. We are there waiting for your condition so that we can arrive there with you you within the thing that human beings have measured by season and that which you call time and space. Do you understand...we have no time. We have no space We are limitless unlimited. Yet for you within your concepts we come within your limited confines. Now I go from you. Be joyous and content. That Alex is very pleased with you. You are a good pupil for him. He is happy.

Nick Devise. (Demdike)

You know I don't agree with the way of work. I don't agree with this young man, in the way of work but it is better than nought so I'll go along with it. You tell that Alex that ^{that's} naught wrong with her that a good fucking wouldn't cure. He should
